PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Uncle Sam wants YOU in the Independence Day Parade!

Greensboro, NC, April 28, 2010 – This year's Independence Day Parade at the Fun Fourth Festival will start at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, July 3.

The Parade heralds a morning full of free fun as it winds through downtown Greensboro, beginning at Greene and Lindsay Streets, traveling south on Greene, east on Market, north on Church and ending at the Greensboro Children's Museum.

Uncle Sam and the Guilford Courthouse Fife & Drum Corps will lead floats, clowns, beauty queens, community organizations, dance troupes, military personnel and more.

We want YOU (the community) in the Independence Day Parade!

Interested organizations, bands and individuals are encouraged to participate. Have a church tambourine band? Lawn mower drill teams? Bucket drumming marching squad? Girl Scout, Boy Scout and church youth groups are all encouraged to march in the parade and show their patriotic spirit.

Prizes awarded for Most Patriotic and Best in Parade.

There is no charge to participate but you need to submit an approved Parade Application available for download at www.funfourthfestival.org.

Admission and parking free; no pets or coolers, please.

For full information on the Parade and festival, visit www.funfourthfestival.org

The Fun Fourth Festival is produced by Grassroots Productions Limited. This local non-profit organization focuses on charitable and educational activities which foster interest in local history and events in Guilford County. An advisory board of local business and civic leaders oversees the planning of each event.

The Fun Fourth Festival has been recognized as a Top 20 Event by the Southeast Tourism society and as an Outstanding Event by Celebration NC Foundation.
